

Easy Living on the Main Street

3 1 518m2

Once the town butchers shop, now this stone building has been converted into an easy living home with a country feel. The main shop front is now a large Games room with a split system and slow combustion heater for comfort.

- 3 Bedrooms with a mixture of timber and carpet floors
- 1 Bathroom with single vanity and shower plus separate toilet and tiled floors
- Kitchen has a large country style feel with lots of timber cabinetry and island bench, an electric stove top and wall oven
- Lounge room with timber floor boards, slow combustion heater and split system air conditioner
- Dining room is open to the lounge
- Laundry has tiled floor and stainless steel wash trough

The property offers a simple lifestyle with very little maintenance for a single person or potentially a family looking for a smaller backyard. There is side street access for secure off street parking, with undercover patio area for entertaining in any weather conditions.
