

57 Buggy Rd, Baroota

Your Opportunity to Own a Unique Bushland Property with Endless Potential

Nestled just off the Augusta Highway between Port Pirie and Port Augusta, this exceptional parcel of land spans approximately 234 hectares (580 acres) across three freehold titles. Ideally positioned, this property offers a rare combination of commercial opportunities and a unique rural lifestyle.

The land's strategic location makes it perfect for various uses, including a depot for pastoralists moving livestock closer to market, an addition to existing farming operations, or as a prime equine agistment property. Its easy access and versatility cater to a broad range of livestock needs.

Formerly home to the iconic Baroota Rodeo and the well-known Baroota Campground, this property is steeped in history. The rodeo yards, judging platform, and selling sheds remain intact, offering the chance to reinvigorate its legacy. The campground, now closed, presents a fantastic opportunity for new ownership. Travelers can once again enjoy camping in this scenic outback setting with excellent amenities, including quality toilet and shower facilities, undercover shelters, and proximity to the coast and major regional hubs.
