Historic Hallett Pub – A Rare Opportunity to Own a Piece of Local Heritage

Step into history with The Wild Dog Hotel, a charming circa-1800s pub that's ready to be revived as the heart of the community. Boasting traditional features, a welcoming open-fireplace, and an inviting front bar, this character-filled property is primed for its next chapter.

Strategically positioned on the corner of Richard Street and Wilkins Highway, the pub has long been a haven for locals and weary travelers alike. With five bedrooms, three bathrooms, and additional patron amenities, there's ample potential to transform this space into a bustling hub once more.

Recently operational until mid-2024, the hotel retains a suspended liquor license, offering a seamless transition for new owners looking to reopen and capitalize on the area's growing accommodation demand.

Features at a Glance:

- Classic pub atmosphere with an open front bar, pool table, and cozy dining areas
- Expansive formal dining room, plus a smaller dining area with a slow
