548 Mills Rd, Beetaloo Valley

Stunning Views of Beetaloo Valley

Discover the breathtaking beauty of the Southern Flinders Ranges with Section 548 Mills Road, Beetaloo Valley. This exceptional 67.45 acre property offers stunning panoramic views that stretch across the picturesque landscape. The open hills grazing lends itself to recreational and farming pursuits, with Ecotourism opportunities STC.

Bordering a national park to the north and the renowned Heysen Trail to the west, this unique holding provides direct access to nature and endless exploration opportunities.

The property features practical infrastructure, including a substantial 22 x 12m* shed and 22,500L* rainwater tank. Stock management is made easy with established cattle yards and four troughs plumbed from the shed rainwater tank.

For weekend getaways or camping adventures, the camp-out shack with an additional 22,500L* rainwater tank awaits with fantastic views.

Adding to the property's appeal is an orchard which includes quince, cherries, pears, apples, grapes, figs, blackberries, apricots, plums, olives and almonds; and the significant revegetation effort, with over 1000 trees planted, enhancing the biodiversity and natural beauty of the land.
