10 Richmond St, Quorn

Character, Comfort & Country Living

3 1 6 2,420m²

Set in the historic township of Quorn – the gateway to the Flinders Ranges – this picturesque country town is steeped in charm and surrounded by natural beauty. With heritage architecture, local cafes, and the iconic Pichi Richi Railway, Quorn offers a relaxed lifestyle with a strong sense of community and connection to the region's rich past.

Positioned on a well-kept, fully fenced, 2420m² multiple allotments, this beautifully preserved circa 1910, three bedroom, one bathroom return verandah villa is a standout example of timeless country architecture. Built from freestone with a traditional galvanised iron roof, the home boasts period features and thoughtful modern updates for comfortable living.

Inside, you'll find air conditioning, ceiling fans and a charming stone fireplace, while outside, the enclosed rear verandah has been transformed into an inviting all-weather entertaining space. With a combustion heater and ample room to relax or entertain, it's the perfect retreat in every season.

Features include:

- Over 100,000L of rainwater storage, pumped to the home for everyday
