

Family Home on a Quarter Acre

Set on a generous 1,000sqm* allotment, this solid three-bedroom family home offers comfortable country living with picturesque farmland views. Built in 1915 and positioned in the quiet rural town of Booborowie, the property combines space, character, and modern convenience. A central hallway with lofty, ornate ceilings creates a welcoming sense of space on entry, leading to three spacious bedrooms, one complete with a built-in robe. The family-sized bathroom includes both a bath and shower, ideal for everyday living. The large lounge room is warm and inviting, featuring an open heater for cosy winter nights. At the heart of the home is a modern, trendy kitchen and dining area, complete with an island bench and ample cupboard space - perfect for family meals and entertaining. Outside, the expansive block is dotted with established fruit trees and offers plenty of room for kids, pets, or future improvements. A secure double-length carport and a separate man cave provide excellent storage and workspace options. This is a fantastic opportunity to enjoy peaceful country living while still having all the essentials for a growing family.
