21 Commercial St, Burra

Historic Grandeur on Commercial Street

Set on a substantial 714 sqm* allotment, this distinguished property offers eight generously proportioned bedrooms, two bathrooms and three toilets, making it as functional as it is impressive. From the moment you enter, the home evokes a sense of nostalgia and prestige, with lofty ceilings, classic picture rails, and exquisite rose ceiling chandeliers that reflect the prosperity of Burra's copper-mining golden age. The interiors showcase timeless materials rarely replicated today such as Baltic pine flooring underfoot, elegant open fireplaces, beautiful jarrah built-in robes and brass fittings and period detailing throughout. The modern kitchen has been thoughtfully integrated, offering contemporary convenience while respecting the home's historic character. A dedicated laundry adds further practicality for large families or guest accommodation.

Outside, a substantial 10.5m x 7.5m* shed with two large roller doors provides excellent storage or workshop space—ideal for collectors, trades, or those seeking versatility without compromising the home's refined presence. Positioned along one of Burra's most recognised streets, this residence stands as a significant piece of South Australia's heritage.
