keenest home cook.

Sliding doors open out to the covered deck, where mornings begin with coffee and stunning sunrises and then wind down with soothing sunsets with your favourite drink in hand. It’s the kind of space where time slows down, and life simply feels easier.

Underneath, there’s room for up to four vehicles, while the low maintenance allotment makes this property perfectly suited as a permanent residence, coastal getaway or lock-and-leave weekender.

Whether you’re an avid golfer, looking to downsize in style, searching for a fresh start, or a city buyer chasing that relaxed coastal-country lifestyle, this is a home that captures the very best of what Copper Coast living is all about.
