

Lot 97 Railway Terrace, Burra

Elevated Views, Dual Access, Unlimited Possibilities

This is a rare opportunity to secure a substantial 6,000m² residential allotment in the charming township of Burra. Boasting breathtaking hillside views and a desirable north-facing aspect, this impressive block offers the perfect setting to build your dream home.

A standout feature of the property is its dual road access, with frontage to both the front and rear of the allotment, providing flexibility for future development and ease of access. Power and water services are available at the front boundary, adding further convenience for prospective buyers.

The block is relatively flat, making it well suited for building, while the established front hedge enhances privacy and creates a peaceful, secluded feel. Large residential blocks of this size are becoming increasingly difficult to find, making this an exceptional opportunity in a sought-after location.
