

Charming Restored Stone Cottage With Seaviews

3 2 6 756m2

Step into timeless character and modern comfort with this beautifully restored stone cottage, perfectly positioned on a generous corner allotment in the vibrant coastal town of Wallaroo.

This enchanting home features three generous bedrooms, all boasting polished floorboards and ceiling fans. Two bedrooms are warmed by combustion heaters, creating a cosy retreat no matter the season.

The heart of the home is the light-filled open-plan living area, highlighted by a stunning stone feature wall, a third combustion heater, a split-system air conditioner and ducted evaporative for year-round comfort. The kitchen is a standout, offering an abundance of stone benchtops, a dishwasher, and seamless flow out to a private alfresco - the perfect spot for relaxed entertaining or quiet morning coffees.

Outside, the fully fenced rear yard provides a safe, private sanctuary ideal for children and pets to play freely. The established garden is a true delight, filled with beautiful roses and colourful bulbs that add charm and fragrance throughout the seasons.

Practicality meets lifestyle with a massive 12m x 7.6m shed complete with double auto roller doors and its own ensuite. A lean-to offers covered storage
