

A LANDMARK REIMAGINED

3 1 3 722m2

Step beyond the ordinary and into a home unlike any other. Originally built in 1862 as the Wallaroo Bay Bible Christian Church, this remarkable residence has been thoughtfully transformed into a distinctive three-bedroom home that beautifully honours its rich history while embracing modern comfort.

Set on a generous 722m² allotment, this is a property for buyers seeking character, individuality, and a lifestyle that's anything but standard. From the moment you step inside, you're immersed in history. Original polished timber floorboards lead you through the grand central hall and former sacristy, where soaring exposed beams, magnificent pointed arched windows and a cosy combustion wood heater create an atmosphere that is both warm and inspiring. Original artwork graces each end of the hall, while suspended lighting, ceiling fans and a new split-system provide year-round comfort. The original church lobby has been cleverly transformed into a spacious walk-in robe, while a generous new main bedroom has been seamlessly added, creating a private and comfortable retreat that complements the home's unique character.

Sliding barn-style doors with beautiful leadlight accents open into the heart of the home. The kitchen perfectly blends old and new, featuring polished timber floors, quality modern appliances including a new 900mm electric oven, twin
