

Two Allotments on Chapman Street

Offering approximately 920m² of vacant land, Lots 171–172 Chapman Street present an opportunity to secure your own piece of country.

Surrounded by rolling countryside and capturing picturesque rural views, these allotments are a blank canvas to work with. For buyers looking to secure more space, adjoining Lot 170 Chapman Street (an additional 638.58m2) is also available for purchase, creating the opportunity to acquire all three lots together.

Located in South Australia's Mid North, Burra is a historic country township approximately two hours north of Adelaide and 30 minutes northeast of Clare. Known for its rich mining heritage, distinctive stone architecture and established rural community, Burra offers a country lifestyle with local shops, cafés, pubs and essential services close at hand. A well-known township within the wider Clare Valley region, Burra combines country character with convenient access to surrounding regional centres.
