Charming Limestone Cottage with Character, Gardens and Unique Extras

3 1 3 809m2

This charming circa 1879* limestone cottage offers excellent street appeal and timeless character. The home features a private front verandah, polished Baltic pine flooring and distinctive mini orb ceilings. The separate lounge room provides a cosy retreat, complete with a pot belly heater.

The home offers two bedrooms, with the option to convert the separate lounge room into a third bedroom. The master bedroom features reverse-cycle air conditioning and a ceiling fan, while the second bedroom provides comfortable accommodation. The potential third bedroom or additional living space features slate flooring, a combustion heater and attractive leadlight details.

The spacious 6.9m x 3.6m* kitchen and dining area is equipped with a stainless steel splashback, painted timber cabinetry, an electric oven and a gas cooktop. The home is fitted with a total of three reverse-cycle air conditioners, located in the dining room, family room and master bedroom, ensuring year-round comfort. A family-sized bathroom and separate laundry provide practical everyday convenience.

Outside, a west-facing rear deck provides the perfect spot to enjoy the evening sunsets, complemented by a private pergola and established garden areas.
