22 Fisher Street, Georgetown

PIECE OF HISTORY

Located in the centre of Georgetown is this magnificent stone building built in the early 1890's which was used as the local bank "The Bank Of "Adelaide" and homestead.

The main entrance leads to the business section of the building with an office and original built-in volt.

The homestead has four large bedrooms some with open fireplaces, spacious lounge with open fireplace, kitchen/dine and walk-in store and a large cellar.

Timber floors throughout most of the home, enviro septic system, garage.

Plenty of room in this one and a lot of work

Open Inspections Wednesday the 12th of April between 1pm and 2pm
