50 Gertrude Street, Port Pirie

YMCA Building

On behalf of The Young Mens Christian Association

A prominent long standing landmark in Port Piries CBD has become available and offers an abundance of possibilities. Currently used as a venue for sporting activities, community center and meeting rooms. The scope is endless to further enhance these or redevelop to suit your own needs. The building of solid construction features many recreation rooms, offices, squash courts, toilet/shower facilities, kitchen and storage sheds. The allotment of approx 4864m2 is adjacent to the Port Pirie Hospital, doctors clinic and short walk to the retail shopping district making it ideal for development (subject to council consent).
