Rural living with an income!

An opportunity to purchase this 40 acre property which includes two, 20 acre sections in Bungama zoned rural living with mains water connected and power available. This property would be ideal as a rural living allotment with the possibility to earn an income from the mining lease. There has been a portion of the property which has been utilised for mining with the remaining land considered arable. Sand and garden soil have been mined from the property and the mining lease is transferable to the new owner. Call now to discuss this opportunity.
