

ARCHITECTURALLY DESIGNED AND TIMELESS IN APPEARANCE

As the entrance welcomes you in through strategically placed grey iron bark timber and western red cedar glass windows, your perception of space just opens up at first glance. The inside and outside appear to be one. Spacious and open living are to be enjoyed from the lounge and formal dining areas and privacy is at its finest when you close the automatic blinds. The kitchen with its granite tops, numerous drawers and cupboards is a treat for the busy cook. A quiet meal for two or open the French doors to entertain your guests, the choices are endless. In the evening, retreat to the spacious master bedroom that offers a large ensuite with twin basins and a walk-in robe that would be the envy of any avid shopper. If that is not enough, wake up to the views of the private designer gardens. The guest bedroom is generous and has built-in robes with the second bathroom only meters away. The office is well appointed for the executives that need to work from home with benches, library spaces and provisions to accommodate a third bedroom. The laundry with its floor to ceiling cupboards opens to the large 4 car garage that also offers storage and workspace. Nothing has been left to the imagination with this home, with features including ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, abundance of storage, power points in floor, security system, rainwater plumbed to the house, trailer or caravan space, fenced yards, 954m2* corner
